JOB-READY SKILLS WORKSHOP • THURSDAY, 1 OCTOBER 2026

Your students will graduate. Will they be hired?

One day in Una, for students about to hold a degree — and wanting something to show with it. Not a lecture they sit through: a day they build something in.

THE WORKSHOP, IN ITS OWN WORDS

Nobody hires a marksheet.

They hire what you can show them.

Marksheet se naukri nahi milti. Kaam dikhana padta hai.

A NOTE TO THE PRINCIPAL

The degree says they can learn. The interview asks what they can do.

Dear Principal,

Every year your college sends out young people who have earned their degree honestly — three years of lectures, practicals and examinations. And every year many of them walk into a question the degree was never built to answer on its own: what can you actually do?

That is not a failure of anyone's teaching. It is a gap between two things that were never designed to meet, and it is not only a gap in Una.

The India Skills Report 2026 found 56.35% of the young people it assessed employable — so more than four in ten were not.

The national policy points the same way. NEP 2020 lets higher education institutions run "short-term certificate courses in various skills including soft skills" (para 16.5), and says students at all HEIs will get internships to improve their employability (para 11.8).

We cannot close that gap in a day, and we will not pretend to. What one day can do is change what a student is looking for — and put something real in their hands. On Thursday, 1 October 2026 we are running the Job-Ready Skills Workshop in Una. One day, one room, one man who has been a physicist, an artist, a writer and a freelancer. You walk out with one of two things — a completely different way of thinking about work, or projects real enough to put in front of an employer. Possibly both.

It costs your college nothing, and it asks for three small things, all on page 5. Page 6 is a notice for your board.

With respect,

THE DAY, AS IT WILL BE PLAYED

Stories will be told.
Songs will be sung.
Work will be built.

PROGRAMME

JOB-READY SKILLS WORKSHOP

UNA · THURSDAY 1 OCTOBER

YOUR HOST

One man has been all four.

PHYSICIST

ARTIST

WRITER

FREELANCER

He has chased more dreams than most people let themselves have — and he still freelances, a lot, which means he is paid for what he can do rather than for what a certificate says he studied. On Thursday, that is the whole lesson.

You meet him on Thursday.

IN THREE ACTS

I

ACT I

Stories

Real ones, told out loud — from a man who has lived through more dreams than most people let themselves have. The ones that worked, and the ones that did not.

II

ACT II

Songs

Yes, songs. Some things land in a chorus that never land in a lecture — and a room that has sung together listens differently afterwards.

III

ACT III

Work

Then you build. You leave having made something you can show — or having seen something you cannot unsee.

Nothing staged, no motivational act. Something real and good is going to happen in that room — and you will know it when it does.

WHAT YOUR STUDENTS WALK OUT WITH

Two ways out of the room. Possibly both.

ENDING A

A different mind

You stop asking “what job will they give me?” and start asking “what can I make that somebody will pay for?” That one question changes the next ten years.

ENDING B

A portfolio

You leave with projects — finished, real, yours — that you can open in front of an employer or a client and say: I made this.

WHO IT IS FOR

Class 11 & 12	before a stream decides everything for you
College students YOUR COLLEGE	before the degree ends and the question starts
Graduates YOUR COLLEGE	who have the paper and are still waiting
Anyone stuck	working, between things, or tired of waiting to be picked

WHAT IT COSTS A STUDENT

$$₹299 - ₹299 = ₹0$$

₹299 to walk in. Every rupee of it is adjusted against the two-month program — and only people who attend Thursday can join that program. If you continue, Thursday cost you nothing.

AFTER THURSDAY

The only way into the two-month program.

The two-month Job-Ready Skills Program is open only to people who attend this workshop. There is no other way in — not later, not by paying more. Thursday is the door.

Thursday is the door, and it is the only one. Behind it is a full two-month Job-Ready Skills Program that only people who were in the room can join — and your ₹299 is already counted towards it.

FOR THE COLLEGE

What it asks of your college.

WHAT IT COSTS THE COLLEGE

Nothing.

No fee, no paperwork, no agreement to sign, no session to host. The day happens at our venue in Una.

- 1 Forward the link to your students' WhatsApp groups — today, if you can. visionsuccessuna.com/workshop
- 2 Pin page 6 on the notice board. It is built to be read from across a corridor.
- 3 Tell your faculty. Registration is open to anyone — teachers are welcome to register too.

Plainly. Each student registers on their own, and gets their own receipt and their own venue message. There is no group rate, no campus session, no certificate, no placement promise and no seat limit — none of them exists, so none is offered.
